

Environmental Histories of Capitalism: Land, Race, and Profit

14 novembre 2017

Dans le cadre du projet « Places and Cultures of Capitalism: New Histories from the Grassroots » (CREA/Université Paris Nanterre, HDEA/Université Paris-Sorbonne, University College London et York University)

Lieu : Université Paris Nanterre, Bâtiment W Max Weber, salle 2

14h-17h

Thomas J. Adams, University of Sydney, Professeur invité à l'Université Paris Nanterre, "Draining the Swamp: Political Economy, Gulf Coast Labor Migration, and the Contradictions of Segregation in New Orleans, 1875-1927"

Elsa Devienne, Université Paris Nanterre, "From 'Slum by the Sea' to 'Silicon Beach': An Environmental History of Venice, USA"

Andrew W. Kahrl, University of Virginia, "Nature, On a Leash: The History and Future of Coastal Capitalism"

Commentaires de conclusion, Giacomo Parrinello, SciencesPo Paris