How to get to Nanterre University:

⇒ Metro and RER Tickets: A single ride on the metro, train, or RER costs €2.55, while a bus or tram ride costs €2.05. To organize your commute while in Paris: <https://www.iledefrance-mobilites.fr/en/titres-et-tarifs/detail/ticket-metro-train-rer>

⇒ By RER (Take RER Line A bound for Saint-Germain-en-Laye and get off at the “Nanterre-Université” station. From the “Châtelet / Les Halles” or “Auber” stations, the trip takes between 15 and 10 minutes.)

⇒ By train (Take line L from Saint-Lazare station toward “Nanterre-Université” and get off at the “Nanterre-Université” station. The trip takes about 15 minutes.)

⇒ By bus (“Nanterre-Université” stop via: Line 367 “Rueil Malmaison RER - Pont de Bezons”. Line 304 “Nanterre Place de la Boule - G.Péri Asnières Gennevilliers”. Line 357 “Cimetière Parc du Mont Valérien - Nanterre Place des Mugnets”)

Please note that these lines get very busy in the morning (8:00–9:30); to ensure your comfort, plan accordingly.

How to find your way once on campus:

The light blue arrows indicate the way to the Weber building, it's a 3-minute walk. The conference will take place on the ground floor.

In case you need extra coffee or a snack while on campus, there are vending machines on the ground floor of the Weber building but you can also go to the student cafeterias marked with a yellow star below (card payments only). For more options, we recommend either the cafeteria close to the RER station or the Crous, next to the BU library.

If you need a quiet place to work, you can get to the Grande BU library circled in purple.

The campus has many green areas so, weather permitting, you are welcome to enjoy the sun outside.

Your presentations:

We would like to remind you that your presentation should not exceed 20 minutes.

If you have prepared a PowerPoint, send it to Myrto and Gina by email on the day before.

If you need to print your talk, please contact Myrto in advance (PDF format only).
